6 Monak Rd, North Arm

RARE LARGE 4.963 HA BLOCK WITH HUGE SHED

This property has been in the one family for many years and represents a one-off opportunity to purchase a rarely available reasonable sized acreage in a fabulous location with a variety of features.

Consider the advantages of 6 Monak Road NORTH ARM :

- Rare larger block of 4.963Ha. Approximately 12.2 acres.
- Sealed road access and frontage.
- Town Water
- Gentle slope for easy building.
- Large high roof shed already on-site. Approx 18m x 8m. Power available.
- No restrictive building covenants. (Possibly re-site an old Queenslander.)
- Secluded leafy treed area at back with seasonal Bunya Creek.
- Mostly Securely fenced.
- Long road frontage and easy access for trucks, machinery for home based business.
- North Arm Park is opposite the property.
- 2km cycle or walk to North Arm State School.
- 2km to the local Terella Craft Brewery.
- 5km to Yandina Village and 7km to the famous Eumundi Markets.
- Under 30 minutes' drive to beaches and major centres.

The front area is approximately 6 acres consisting of pastured farmland which is easy to build on with plenty of potential home-sites. This area contains the large 18m x 8m shed with three phase power available.

The rear of the property is also around 6 acres and has a vegetation covenant so is more timbered and includes the seasonal Bunya Creek creating a shady retreat for both people and wildlife.

There is an easement which runs north south along the western boundary occupying about 2 acres of the total land. This boundary is currently unfenced.

The site is zoned rural and ideal to build a home, perhaps run some cattle or a horse or two and with the possibility of also constructing a second dwelling, subject to the necessary Council approvals.

The property has long frontage to Monak Rd making it ideal for a tradie or home based business with easy access for trucks, machinery etc.
