Peaceful & Private Haven with Room to Watch the Family Grown

Delightfully appointed family home with room for all the family. Set back from the street on a private subtropical rainforest block on almost 6000m2 , this idyllic retreat embraces a relaxed, almost self-sufficient way of living.

With light and bright flowing interiors combined with expansive outdoor living options this family home provides a haven of privacy and style within easy reach of Buderim and Mooloolaba. From the moment you arrive via the shady sub-tropical Mons School Road you will instantly feel relaxed and at home with nature.

This property offers the ultimate in modern tree change living. With triple shed and carport large enough for a caravan.

This home could also be used to run the family business. The present owners have run successful building business for many years, with a separate entrance for dad and all his trucks, caravans, trailers, boats and machinery.

The children have room for ponies, cats, dogs, chooks and even a cow, not forgetting mum with a beautiful white 2 pac kitchen with granite bench tops, leading to a delightful veranda to watch the children play.
