Forget gardening all weekend as the yard and gardens are all low maintenance and filled with tropical plants giving you more time to laze by the pool. Positioned less than 3 minute's walk to the beach access, the local park and the soft white sand at Wurtulla beach - 'voted by locals as one of the best beaches on the Sunshine Coast, offering a consistent beach break for the surfers or take an early morning walk with kilometres of pristine uncrowded beach that stretches from Pt Cartwright to Currimundi. Be warned once the word gets out this position will soon be the beachside hotspot, well positioned close to the future proposed Kawana beach development, Lake Kawana, Bokarina collage school and sporting fields.
