That's all we know.

7, 70 Carter Road, Nambour

HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE THE REST

This townhouse is cleverly laid out over 4 levels, and will catch your attention with its immaculate presentation and undeniable charm. Offering arguably the best position in a small block of only seven units, this north facing townhouse captures a tranquil district outlook, and allows extra sun and breeze through additional windows only available on the end unit, meaning you are tucked away for privacy and sheltered from any road noise.

The property has been maintained to the highest degree with new washed lime oak -durable, low maintenance Genero flooring throughout and freshly painted walls in the living areas. You will find yourself envisioning pottering in the generous side garden enjoying the morning sun, and relaxing in the afternoon in your own secluded courtyard.

With the main air-conditioned bedroom on its own private level, this property offers all of the room and storage that some smaller houses do without the price tag. Additional features include:

- Single lock up garage with internal access
- Pet friendly complex offering low body corp fees
- Skylight in bathroom for extra light
- Security screens, triple locks front & back
- Fly screens upper, outdoor lighting
- Storage shelving in garage and under stairs
- Built in robes in both bedrooms
- Bathroom with standalone shower and bath -Separate toilet
- Centrally located to town centre and public transport facilities

Whether you are a seasoned investor, first home buyer or looking to down size this property personifies quality and value, encompassed in a low maintenance, attractive, functional home.
