LUXURY LIVING IN A PRIME LOCATION

This immaculately presented near new 3 bedroom townhouse has been finished to a luxurious standard throughout and boasts an abundance of exceptional features; not least an enviable blue chip location only one block from the sparkling waters of Picnic Point and within easy walking distance of both the Sunshine Plaza and vibrant cafes & restaurants of Ocean Street.

Architecturally designed over two levels, the benefits of a prime position at the rear of the complex are clear not only from a privacy and security perspective, but also from the much higher levels of natural light enjoyed exclusively by townhouses not flanked on both sides by other properties. The contemporary interior exudes style and class, with many of the high end fittings showcased perfectly under varying ceiling heights, modern downlights and a large feature sky light. Downstairs is sure to appeal to lovers of open plan design with the tiled living/dining areas enjoying seamless access to both the outdoor entertaining area in the rear courtyard, and a superbly appointed gourmet kitchen featuring stone bench tops, stainless steel appliances and a leafy outlook.

Once you walk up the striking timber staircase and onto the plush soft carpet on the second level it's obvious that the smart, practical floor plan means no compromise has been made in either storage, or living space. Two of the bedrooms are big, but the master is enormous, and all three have extensive built in wardrobe space. The stylish bathroom and private ensuite have been finished to the same exceptional level that is consistent throughout meaning this property is guaranteed to provide its
