9 Coachwood Street, Buderim

IT DOESN'T GET ANY HIGHER THAN THE TOP!

If you know anyone that declares they live on top of Buderim Mountain then they must surely be the neighbours of this wonderful Buderim property which literally sits right on top and offers expansive views from the Ocean all the way out to the Glasshouse Mountains. Situated perfectly in the heart of a prime suburb, the neighborhood beckons with prestige and the build quality of this address reflects its setting. This beautiful home is Buderim property perfection in a snapshot.

From the moment the double entry doors swing open the build quality of the property is evident, from the sprawling interior full of high-end fixtures and fittings, polished hardwood floors and high ceilings to the expansive master suite set out over an entire level with breathtaking views, this home is the epitome of style, space and comfort.

Each of the four bedrooms are well positioned and welcoming, there is almost no reason to leave home with a study large enough to be considered a home office. The large fourth bedroom also has its own walk in wardrobe and private deck, perfect for guests looking to sit back and enjoy the fresh mountain air on offer.

The kitchen, often the hub of the home, is the perfect vantage point to prepare meals as it adjoins the dining and living room in open-plan living style and overlooks the sprawling backyard and north facing deck, many long afternoons will be spent outside playing with the kids or family pet
