Lot 132 Paroo Lane, Pelican Waters

BRAND NEW...COMPLETION JUST 16 WEEKS AWAY

This exciting, stunning new 4 bedroom, 2 car, 2 bath house and land package has plenty of street appeal to greet and welcome you home. A thoughtful amount of architecture has blended with high end finishes (including stone bench tops, square set plaster, Delonghi European Appliances and more) to make your decision easy. Rather than experience the pain of the unknown during the round about and merry go round of building your own home, this opportunity provides you a secure plan to be the beneficiary of a brand spanking new home.

Simple, refined, picture framed front garden, rendered letterbox, exposed aggregate driveway and featured front door invite you inside to a modern, most popular open floor plan. To enhance your comfort and easy living this home has been cleverly designed for the Queensland climate. The family, living, kitchen and outdoor deck entertainment area are north orientated to take full advantage of the sun's path and natural breezes all year round. A plan that creates space, with natural light, more vista, perfect for entertainment or while multi tasking in the kitchen and watching your young ones. Inclusions are too many to mention, so please refer to list.

The outdoor deck entertainment area flows into a nice back yard area where there is room for a trampoline, growing a veggie lot or to get out the cricket bat and ball.

In terms of location the Pelican Waters precinct offers so much more than the average Sunshine Coast suburb. The waterways of Golden Beach and Bullcock beach are on your doorstep and will become your new playground. Schooling for both primary and secondary provides abundant options with Caloundra City Private School and Golden Beach State Primary School within 5 minutes, and the jewel of the Sunshine Coast (The University Of the Sunshine Coast) is just a 15 minute drive along the Bruce Highway.

Pelican Waters really does give you the best of both worlds for world class fishing, diving, boating and general water sports and you are 3 minutes away from the premier Greg Norman designed golf course. On top of this, easy access to Brisbane City (Australia's most liveable city) can be enjoyed with a short 50 minute drive along the Bruce High Way. The ballet, inner city fine dining and the popular South Bank can be a weekend getaway or day trip from this popular Pelican Waters destination.

This beautiful, stylish, modern home has the following inclusions:
