Unit 19, 18 Ackama St, Algester

NOW VACANT & QUICK SALE NEEDED! INSPECT SATURDAY: BRING THE CHEQUEBOOK!

Highly motivated Sale! The asking price has now been SLASHED on this terrific and well-presented townhouse, with a prompt Sale the primary objective. Our Seller is ready to move onto another project so time is of the essence.

Suited to either an Owner-occupier or investor seeking an above-average yield, the townhouse boasts all of the modern conveniences. Bargain hunters and entry-level buyers alike will be drawn to this well-maintained 3 bedroom, air-conditioned townhouse situated in a quiet, spacious and well-run complex in Algester.

With the previous Tenant having now moved out, Vacant Possession is an option for an intending Owner (provided a Contract can be secured in a timely fashion). This -plus another, recent change in circumstances - means that this attractive property is now stamped "Urgent: For Sale!" and is therefore being offered at a wonderfully affordable price; and being such a versatile property there are a range of options for the astute Buyer who is ready to step up to the table. A new Tenant can readily be sourced if an Investor wants to snap it up as well!

Peace of mind is part and parcel of living in such a quiet, safe and welcoming complex. Its location close to both the Algester State Primary and St Stephens Private Primary Schools means those with a young family are well taken care of; and with Public transport options a mere couple of minutes away there's also convenient access for those looking to travel to Brisbane City or Griffith University. Shopping for essentials, engaging in a bit of retail therapy, grabbing a cuppa with friends or family, or keeping fit are all convenient and easy to manage with the various shopping and sports complexes, restaurants and cafes all being within a short drive!

Investors know that they can rest easy with a "set and forget" proposition such as this, with rent sitting between $395-$400 per week for this and other townhouses of this design within the complex. Part and parcel in the deal are comparatively low Body Corporate contributions (equating to approx $65 per week) and the fact that there's a healthy Sinking Fund now well-established.

No matter what your intentions, aims or aspirations may be, this one is likely to tick all of the boxes on any shrewd buyer's Wish List!
