options, whether it be more room for the extended family, a teenagers retreat or take advantage to generate an income via AirBnB or similar, or rent out permanently.

The home is set back on the property allowing plenty of room in the front yard for vehicles, trailer, boat or caravan. You could install a garage or carport or if a swimming pool is on your wish list there is room for that too.

Owning a home in this area gives you the Maroochydore convenience with a Buderim address and puts you mere minutes to everyday conveniences. Walking distance to Immanuel College (preschool right through to Year 12), sporting facilities and local shops. It's only a few minutes drive to Alex or Mooloolaba beaches, Sunshine Plaza and the upcoming Maroochy CBD with easy access to the motorway in all directions.

This charming home encapsulates a genuine sense of tranquillity within leafy surrounds, that really must be viewed to be appreciated. Call Rosie to arrange an inspection today!
