MAROOCHYDORE CBD TOWNHOUSE

Designed and built in 2008 by Master Builder C J Ritson, the complex known as 'Twelve @ 12' boasts design concepts well ahead of it's time and remains a leading residential development today. With just twelve exclusive townhouses on the allotment, the development was meticulously planned to provide each owner with their own open private space. The entire development provides detached properties providing for the feel to be more like a house than 'townhouse'.

Number 1 is the premiere townhouse in the complex having a large 430m2 allotment with its own exclusive pool and outdoor Bali hut area. It also has parking behind the security gate for 3 vehicles which is very hard to achieve in any unit development. The transition from inside living to outdoor entertaining is seamless and the glass doors open up to create a spacious place from the tiled living area to the large outdoor timber deck where everyone can co-exist. The in ground swimming pool is a major draw card in this purpose built outdoor area.

With clever planning coupled with an interior colour palate that is soft, warm, inviting and timeless we are confident that you will find the unique design to your liking.
