72 Steiner Cres, Baringa

INVESTMENT ALERT...!! INVESTMENT ALERT...!!

If you are in the position to invest or to purchase a new home, take advantage of this opportunity that is being offered before you today! With money being so cheap, and interest rates continue to remain at an all-time history low, the property at 72 Steiner Crescent, Baringa, is a property for all buyers to gaze their eyes upon.

Constructed in 2017 by a local, respectable and reputable company, Shine Building, this entry level home has all boxes ticked for the first home buyer wanting to enter the property market, or savvy investor wishing to expand on their portfolio.

With just shy of 160m2 under roof living space on a 300m2 flat block in the quiet neighbourhood of Baringa, you will be surprised how much potential one property has to offer. With the recent infrastructure changes, the home is now located in a safe, quiet, low vehicle moving area, where children are often seen playing amongst friends and family.

A great opportunity for persons that are lucky enough to work from home with an open area greeting arrivals at the front of the home that can be converted to an office, separating work commitments from the rest of the family home. Casually walk down the long gallery to an open plan living space to accommodate anyone wishing to live on their own, to couples, to a young expanding family.

All bedrooms are equipped with large built-in sliding robes and ceiling
