and the amazing ocean vista

- The size of the main bedroom (over 20m2) is unmatched by anything we have seen in recent times and the en suite and walk in robe are equally impressive
- The second wing we refer to is on the upper level. It comprises of 2 more bedrooms (both with their own ensuite), and another large living area with built in kitchenette. The upper level bedroom is also impressive in size as it replicates that lower level parents retreat and is also over 20m2.
- Bedroom 4 is 3.6m x 3.6m and is worthy of a nomination for one of the best 4th bedrooms that money can buy with a view that will take your breath away from the private balcony.
- A dedicated study conveniently placed at the front entry foyer allows for the work from home consultant to enjoy a separation from the main living quarters.
- So much flexibility allows the mind to consider limitless opportunities.

Features to be adored
