The Upper Level

The gorgeous timber flooring in rich warm tones throughout this level compliments the neutral colour scheme and with plenty of windows and glass sliding doors the home is filled with natural light.

The open plan living area flows out to the timber deck so whether you are enjoying your morning cuppa or relaxing with a wine at night this space will soon become a favourite area to unwind and delight in the ocean vista.

Cook with a view! The dream kitchen is very modern, centrally located, features a stone island bench, stainless steel appliances and has ample storage.

The master bedroom is of a good size, has sliding doors direct to outside, an en-suite and walk-in wardrobe.

Two further bedrooms upstairs both have robes, ceiling fans and are light and bright.

A powder room services this level for convenience.

Kings Beach is home to one of Queensland's most loved surf-side suburbs offering a vibrant array of restaurants, cafes and home to the annual Caloundra Music Festival held in the parklands that has attracted in previous years the likes of world class acts such as Kate Ceberano, Missy Higgins and Daryl Braithwaite.

This home will suit a large portion of the market such as the busy executive or family who prefer precious time spent enjoying the Sunshine Coast lifestyle rather than spending all weekend maintaining a yard. The investor type will take advantage of the low vacancy rate, the attractiveness for tenants to live in such a position so close to everything and of course expected capital growth. You may wish to buy now at today's prices and move in later when the timing is right.

The sellers are very keen for a result and welcome your inspection.
