MODERN QUEENSLANDER - HEADLAND PARK

Every box has been ticked within this spacious family home, located in always popular Headland Park, on Buderim's North-eastern foothills.

Sitting atop an elevated 778 square metres of private bliss, varying ceiling heights, neutral tones and plenty of natural light blend perfectly with polished timber floors encased in a smart floor plan, to create a welcoming feel as soon as you enter this special family abode.

On the market for the very first time, this is a home that offers very easy living. Lending itself to entertaining via a seamless transition from the main living zone to the expansive rear entertainers' deck. Many mornings, afternoons and evenings will be spent out here quietly relaxing with family or loudly entertaining with guests!

Still out back, the kids, parents and even the pooch will appreciate the grassed yard and easy-care garden that's been lovingly created by the current owners.

Inside, the modernised kitchen will impress the chef of the house, boasting quality inclusions throughout complete with ample storage, roomy benches and importantly, is cooking with gas.

The primary bedroom is generously sized, offering his'n'hers wardrobes and a well-appointed ensuite. Positioned to provide excellent separation from the remaining 3 bedrooms, which all offer fans and built in robes.

The remote double garage takes care of the vehicles, there's also a great hiding spot from the other half in the form of a workshop at the rear of
